

For Release: December 27, 2007
Contact: Chuck Rough
872-6291

Jackie Gitman

NEWS RELEASE

Paradise Performing Arts Center Appoints Executive Director

The Paradise Performing Arts Center Board of Directors is pleased to announce the appointment of Paradise business owner and resident Jackie Gitman as our new Executive Director.

Jackie brings to her position as the executive director of the Paradise Performing Arts Center an extensive background in the management and administration of non-profit organizations, financial management, business ownership, entrepreneurship, and fundraising. She is the owner of Gitman and Associates, a bookkeeping and personnel employment services company in Paradise; she also owns Paradise Homemakers, a housekeeping and domestic care service. In addition, Jackie is active in the community, having served for nearly a year as Treasurer on the Paradise Performing Arts Center Board of Directors, one year as a member of the Board of Directors of the Paradise Ridge Chamber of Commerce and two years as a member of the Paradise Rotary Club.

“Our community is very fortunate to have such a beautiful facility as the Performing Arts Center, and I look forward to tackling the challenges and helping the Center meet its full potential – with the help of the Board and this wonderful community,” states Ms. Gitman.

Commenting on her appointment, Paradise Performing Arts Center Board President Chuck Rough said, “We are very excited about Jackie Gitman’s appointment as our executive director. We are confident that her outstanding leadership and management skills will be instrumental in helping us to further transform the Paradise Performing Arts Center into the premier entertainment venue in Paradise and the North Valley region.”

For further information regarding this news release, please contact PPAC President Chuck Rough at 872-6291.